Project Status

Project Status Information

If there are questions on the project itself, the status or the specifications of OSEK/VDX, you can contact the coordinator of the project. (see our "Contact us" section).

Technical questions on the specifications will be answered by the working group leaders.

The most frequently asked questions will be published on our website.